THE RUSH Teams Up with 4th and 1 to Help Underrepresented H.S. Students in Texas and Michigan Advance to College

AUBURN HILLS, MI –THE RUSH (www.therush.com), which captures video highlights of every player participating in select high school sporting events and delivers the highlights in real-time to subscribers' smartphones and computers, announced a charitable partnership with 4th and 1 (www.4thand1.org) football camps today. This year's 4th and 1 camps will be held at Northeast Texas Community College in Mt. Pleasant, Texas on July 11-15 and at Michigan State University (MSU) in East Lansing from July 18-22. THE RUSH will sponsor the East Lansing, MI camp's 45 participants. In addition, THE RUSH will capture video highlights of 4th and 1's Texas and Michigan campers and deliver the highlights in real-time to the mobile devices and computers of their parents and coaches.

"THE RUSH team spends so much time working with talented high school students and athletic departments around the country," commented Bob Kerch, President of THE RUSH. "Supporting an organization like 4th and 1, which is so committed to helping deserving young athletes from underrepresented groups advance, is very special to be a part of."

A free football camp for high school students from underrepresented groups, 4th and 1 is the only camp in North America that balances football training with ACT/SAT prep, professional skills development, and life skills classes. Kaleb Thornhill, a former MSU football player and current director of player development for the Miami Dolphins, is the camp director of the East Lansing 4th and 1 camp. He is looking forward to growing 4th and 1 with THE RUSH using the company's technology to enhance the experience of the camp for its participants.

"This year most of our 4th and 1 participants are from high schools around the Lansing area," said Thornhill. "With the support of THE RUSH we hope to open it up to students from areas like Detroit, Flint, and Saginaw next year. Having a partner that can also help us add more value to the camp experience for both participants and their families is an added bonus."
